The Object of the College

The object of the College is "to give students of all creeds, a liberal Christian higher education, to train them in the service of God and people and to do such other things as are in harmony with that object."

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN COLLEGE

The history of the American College goes back to 1842 to its early origin in a school at Thirumangalam, started by the missionaries of the American - Madura Mission. Later the school was shifted to Pasumalai to become a college in the year 1881 by the initiatives taken by Rev. G.T. Washburn, the Founder - Principal of the College. In the year 1906, the College was shifted to the present campus during the time of the second Principal Rev. W.M. Zumbro. It became independent of the mission in 1934 when an autonomous governing council was formed to manage its own affairs. It also saw major reorganization on the eve of independence in 1946-47. Originally affiliated to the University of Madras, the American College is presently under the jurisdiction of Madurai Kamaraj University.

With the impetus provided by Kothari Commission (1964), the American College pioneered the cause of college autonomy and succeeded in becoming one of the first four colleges to be made autonomous in 1977-78 by UGC. With its extreme sensitivity to national policies and community needs, the College has grown from strength to strength in the service of higher education. The year 2002-03 marked the introduction of the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS), a paradigm shift that helps students to make responsible choices in the learning process. The College offers 25 under graduate programs, 13 postgraduate programs, and 7 research programs leading to the M.Phil degree. 8 departments of the College have been recognized as research centres for pursuing research, leading to Ph.D.
