

OBJECTIVES OF THE CONFERENCE

As one of the major objectives of the conference, student's participation via poster presentation will be encouraged with relevance to various diversified topics of Medical Microbiology and Immunology. The students and faculties will be interacting with the guest lecturers which will help further collaboration on academic research. This is one of the strategies of fulfilling the learning objectives of this proposed conference.